Old and Pure Whiskey.

We handle only that which is pure and of the best quality. We receive direct from the distillers, and we sell as we buy, absolutely pure. Our trade is principally with families who use it medicinally—and largely through the advice of the physicians who know that our liquors and wines are reliable.

Some VERY OLD Bourbon and Rye Whiskies just received—made by the best distillers in the United States—to which we invite the attention of those who have occasion to buy them.

E. L. WASHBURN & CO.,
Prescription Druggist.

To accommodate our customers we have since put on our shelves the only complete line of Remedies used by Homeopathic Physicians carried in the city. For this reason the impression exists in some quarters that we have only Homeopathic goods.

Such is not the fact. On the contrary, we have one of the largest and most complete drug stocks in the city, which is in the care of competent Pharmacists of long experience in compounding and dispensing prescriptions of all kinds.

Having no interest in the sale of patent medicines we do no counter prescribing, but aid to a legitimate prescription by the physician's supply business, depending on the profession and the public desiring reliable articles at reasonable prices for a continuance of the liberal patronage bestowed on us in the past.

While extending both our Wholesale and Retail Drug Business, our Optical, Surgical and Sundry Departments are Not Neglected. Optical Prescriptions and Eye Glasses requiring special Frames and Setting are made to order and carefully adjusted. Our stock of Surgical Instruments and Dressings is complete, and personal attention is given to the fitting of all appliances for deformities, trusses, etc. All our elastic goods, hose, knives and needles are furnished fresh from our own looms, insuring a perfect fit and the best possible wear.

ENTERTAINMENTS.
Hyperion.
"Sowing the Wind" will play a return engagement on Thursday evening, March 7. Mr. J. H. Gilmore and Miss Mary Hampton will again head the great cast, which has all the other popular names on its roster. This drama ran for 200 nights last season at the Empire theater, New York, and with this same cast had a memorable engagement of fifty nights at Boston. Sale of seats opens Tuesday.

Grand Opera House.
Conroy and Fox in "Hot Tamales" are drawing large audiences to the Grand opera house, and the recipe for "Hot Tamales" is making a big hit. The stars have surrounded themselves with a company of sterling merit. Among those prominent will be found Miss Josie LaFontaine, a soprano singer of great merit; the Allen sisters, who do some wonderful dancing; Thomas Watson, for several seasons leading dancing comedian with Harigan's company; Ren Shields, singing and dancing comedian, who is a whole show in himself. In addition to these new songs composed and sung by Conroy and Fox, the other members of the company contribute freely with popular songs and dances.

There will be two performances to-day.

Don't forget "Hot Tamales" matinee to-day.

"Forgiveness" will be presented on Monday and Tuesday evenings next week, with the favorite actor, Mr. Frederic Bryson in the leading role. It is one of those plays which can be seen repeatedly with pleasure and which sends the audience home well satisfied with themselves and the world.

Milton Nobles, assisted by Dolly Nobles, will present "From Sire to Son" at the Grand opera house Wednesday and Thursday evenings next week.

Don't forget the matinee Wednesday.

M. B. Leavitt's "Spider and the Fly" comes to the Grand for three performances, Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee.

Poll's Wonderland Theater.
The great vaudeville company running this week at the Wonderland makes its last appearance there this afternoon and to-night. Don't miss seeing it. A great company has, however, been secured to replace them, headed by Huchey Dougherty, the world famous minstrel. Dougherty is so well known in this city, where he has appeared hundreds of times as a star and always with something new, that it needs little more than mention of the fact to pack the Wonderland at every performance next week. With him will be Miss Ella Wesner, another star whose name is well known here because of her great New York success, and a monster vaudeville combination.

Death at Springside.

SOUTHINGTON.

The shops are not running on all the days of the week.

In Berlin, five miles east of here, there is some house building going on. Three houses are being put up on one street.

The Congregational church will observe Sunday as communion Sunday.

The sleighing is poor and is about gone. We have had five weeks of it. The graduating class at Lewis' high school have four months left to make ready for that important event.

Sunday is the first Sunday in Lent. There is no complaint to be made about the train service on the railroad here the past winter. The snow was heavy on the tracks at times.

A SURGEON'S KNIFE

Recommended by a Philadelphia Specialist.

A Simple Remedy Averted an Operation.
(Philadelphia, Penn., Item.)

A headliner, heartier, happier man than John J. Neill, of 2427 North Eighth street, Philadelphia, could not be found in a day's search. Among those who knew him formerly, the fact that he is still alive is a constant wonder.

In the fall of 1889 he began to suffer from stones in the bladder, and his miseries were indescribable. Consulting an eminent physician in Philadelphia, he was told that he would have to submit to a surgical operation.

So much did he dread the result, for if unsuccessful it meant death, that he put off the day as long as possible. While in this frame of mind he chanced to see a notice of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Although disheartened with his many futile attempts with medicine, he was induced to make one more trial.

On July 1, 1893, he bought the first bottle of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and within a month he experienced beneficial results, and before he had finished the third bottle the gravel was completely dissolved and his miseries at an end.

Mr. Neill feels that he owes a lasting debt of gratitude to Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. He never fails to recommend it for disorders of the bladder and urinary organs, and says "it will effect a cure if one is possible." The great value of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy lies in the fact that it dissolves the excess of uric acid in the blood. Many of the ailments people suffer from, for instance, rheumatism, nervousness, dyspepsia, kidney, liver and urinary troubles, and the sickness peculiar to women, all come from this one cause.

Favorite Remedy dissolves this acid and expels it from the system, thus curing the disease. In cases of gravel, diabetes, Bright's disease and stone in the bladder, it never fails.

The next meeting of the State Council of Education will be held in the Boardman manual training school, this city, Saturday, March 3, 1895. The meeting will open at 10 a. m.
